Deputation Director and Church Planting Representative for Asia

June 2023

Dear Pastors, partners, and friends in the ministry,

The Lord is good! We finished off another semester of school, had a great graduation, ministered in two different churches, began preparing for the fall semester, as well as for summer events, and had a very tough end of the month.

End of semester: Rebecca and I finished our semester teaching several different subjects at the Our Generation Training Center (OGTC). We really enjoyed the time with our students we pray and trust that God will use them in the future to get the gospel to the world.

Graduation: The 2023 graduation was a great success and it was wonderful having it on our new campus. We rejoiced with the many graduates and faculty that made it possible.

Missionary Jason Holt preached a great message challenging the young people and everyone rejoiced in several songs we sang in a packed auditorium. We are grateful to have a small part in getting the gospel to the world by challenging more to go and training those that desire to go.

Ministered in churches: We had the opportunity to minister to two churches in South Carolina. It is always a blessing to preach the word and encourage people around the country. We enjoyed meeting new friends and visiting those we had not seen in a while.

Preparation: This month and through August will be much preparation in sending missionaries to the field, gearing up for the fall semester, and for events to challenge young people to consider the Great Commission.

We had a "launch" interview and sent off the Southards to South Africa. Also, we had a teacher's workshop to wrap up Spring Semester and prepare for Fall Semester. Lastly, we are preparing for several Youth for the Gospels and World's Cheapest Missions Trip.

Difficult times: As I write this last bit of news, I am both sad and rejoicing. At the end of the month, we made an emergency trip to Utah, as my sweet mother-in-law became very sick. She had an inoperable brain tumor and went to be with Jesus on June 2nd. It is very hard for us to be separated from her. We will see her again!! We do rejoice for her, as she is better than she has ever been. The gospel is true and it matters, we must do all we can to get it to the lost world.
