Even though we are currently in the States, the ministries in Peru and around the world continue. Rejoice with us as we share some of the highlights from the past month.

We arrived on April 2 and were pleasantly surprised to learn that the people renting our home were out. Not only did that mean that we could stay in our own home, but they also fulfilled the obligations of the lease. That blessing allowed us to have all family members stay with us instead of finding alternate lodging.

We traveled to Salisbury the first weekend to be at our home church. Stacy preached in both morning and evening services, plus Sunday School. The evening before, we enjoyed a time of fellowship with the couples that we "grew up with." While many no longer attend Gospel Light, it was as if time stood still, allowing us to pick right back up where we left off. We ask your prayers for our home church as they prayerfully seek a pastor to guide the ministry into the next phase that the Lord has for them.

The second weekend was jam-packed with both a wedding shower for Beka and Jacob and a baby shower for Matt and Naomi. Being in our home made things so much easier and provided a central location to work from and relax in when the activities were over. Words cannot express how much we appreciate all the people that participated in these two events and helped both couples celebrate what lies before them. It is possible that we could be grandparents again when the next newsletter arrives.

Toward the end of the month, we celebrated the birthdays of both Beka and Jennifer. It's hard to believe that we no longer have any teenage children and that she will be married by the end of the year. For Jennifer's birthday, we took a day trip to one of the nearby towns.

Please note a change in our email address. We have been experiencing issues with several Outlook accounts, so we switched to Gmail.

To our knowledge, things are going well in Peru. They met off-site on Easter for a special service and time of fellowship. All activities are moving forward just as if we were there. While we do check in periodically, our communication has purposefully decreased. Stacy meets virtually with Alex to teach him principles of church administration to aid in his transition from assistant to co-pastor.

We appreciate your faithful prayer and financial support for us and the ministries in Peru.

Until the nets are full,
Stacy & Jennifer Dassow
