Important Dates

- Stacy's birthday—July 21
- Bible Doctrines/Ethics Conference—September 11-16

During the first full week of June, we were able to provide general medical attention and counseling in 8 locations around Lima. More than 1700 people were seen by the Jeremiah 38 mission team and national workers. Our church now has over 230 contacts with whom to follow-up.

The assistant pastor search committee presented our evaluation to the church on June 23rd, followed by a time of questions from the congregation; on Sunday, June 30, the church voted and approved the committee's recommendation to call Pastor Alex as assistant pastor. The committee met with him after the vote, and he has until July 6 to respond.

The soil study was completed on June 19, and we should have the results no later than July 3. The team dug three 10-foot-deep holes and found no cause for concern. The engineer who oversaw the soil study has also indicated that he would like to oversee the construction project. Please help us pray for wisdom in the steps ahead.

The church ladies did a wonderful job honoring the men for Father's Day. We held a special dinner and program on Saturday evening with fun games, good fellowship, and a wonderful meal. Each father received a gift from the church and enjoyed a video message from their family. Thank you for your prayers for our family as well.

Due to issues in a new territory, Jennifer traveled to the States and inspected approximately 150 sites. Stacy is working on the qualitative research of his doctorate in addition to his normal pastoral/ministerial responsibilities.

Tim, Kathryn, and their baby girl are doing well, getting ready for the baby shower and the quickly approaching arrival. Matthew has settled in and making progress in his new role at Kubota. They enjoyed some time with Naomi's parents on her birthday.

Hannah and Matt were a huge help during the medical clinics. It was a blessing to have them here. Finally, Rebekah is loving her new job and has settled right into her responsibilities, both in the office and in court.
