Church and personal ministries continued without skipping a beat. Praise the Lord with us as we share a few of the special blessings of the month just completed.

We could not be prouder of the leadership team and the church members during our absence. This on-the-field training is bearing fruit as more of our newer members are seeking areas in which to serve. The messages on membership and unity have the desired results as our congregation walks in step with the Holy Spirit. On December 7, we will meet again with the leadership team to plan the ongoing transition during 2025.

We received more than 50 guests for our Friend Day on the 17th. Some had visited us before, but the majority were new. A close missionary friend preached a salvation message and several responded. tremendous and demonstrated itself throughout the day in the times of food and fellowship. We continue to follow up with the people who participated in the medical clinics in June, and now we have others to contact as well.

Several of our ministries will take a break during the summer months of December, January, and February. The men's and women's Bible studies finished the last week of November, and our Bible institute classes will finish the first week of December. Our homeschool students finish on the 13th and will start again in March. We helped 49 students this year throughout Peru and different parts of the world.

We hosted 16 missionaries at our home for Thanksgiving. Due to the small population of missionaries now in Lima, we have fewer opportunities for fellowship than in years past.

Tim, Kathryn, and Evie Joy are doing great; it's hard to believe she's already 2 months old. We get pictures and videos regularly, which helps.

Matt and Naomi have recently announced that they expect their first baby in early June. We are thrilled for them and receive regular updates as Naomi progresses through the pregnancy. Please pray for them as well.

Wedding plans are full throttle for Rebekah & Jacob, while Hannah presses forward toward graduation in May.

We appreciate your prayers and financial support.
