Dear Praying Friends,

Thank you for your prayers and financial support. We count you as fellow-helpers in the Gospel and believe the fruit the Lord gives us here abounds to your account!

At Shoalhaven Baptist Church, Pastor Reeve is doing a good job teaching adult Sunday School and performing maintenance around the church. He's also teaching our Friday Teens and heading up our evangelistic outreach. Please pray that he will get a job in the local area so he and his family can move closer to the church.

Marie and I have presented the Gospel to Jessica on several occasions at her home. Recently, Jessica miscarried a child and attended church the next day. When I told her that God and His people care for her soul and her loss, she said she does believe in God. Please pray for her to understand the Gospel and be saved and to allow the Lord to change her life.

Lisa came for some food on Wednesday night near the end of our prayer time. I gave her some food and told her we are not a community kitchen and our main product and service to the community is the Gospel and providing a church home for believers. She listened as I presented the Gospel, and she took some tracts home saying she would consider coming on Sunday.

Last year, SBC became the sending church for the Harris family who have now started a church in Ipswich, Queensland. It was a bold step for our congregation and for the young family. Marie and I visited the Harrises in December and attended the first services of Truth Baptist Church along with like-minded pastors who came to encourage the new work. Local believers and lost people also attended, and at least one soul called upon the Lord. Regular attendees and visitors continue to attend TBC services. Last week, a visiting lady approached Pastor Harris after the service, shared her feelings of conviction and sin-guilt, and then called upon the Lord to save her! Another visitor waiting to talk with the pastor was unsure of her salvation and heard his Gospel emphasis. She also prayed for the Lord to save her soul!

Pastor Shellabear, the former pastor here at SBC, had a heart attack last week after one of his cancer appointments. We thank the Lord that there was no damage to his heart. Please pray for his ongoing battle with mesothelioma (asbestos cancer).

At Lighthouse Bible Baptist Church, George, Alan, Jane, Brett & Noah, Dr. Irene, and James, are long-time regulars. Bosco and Florence and their children have been less regular. After a long time of absence, Shari and her children have come the last two weeks and Ronn & Melissa came last week. Jane and Anthony came recently, too. Please pray for these attendees to be more faithful to the services and to the good Bible teaching and preaching of Pastor Skelton.

In the Hall home, All of us are busy and happy in church ministries. Rachel recently returned to full-time work after an arm injury and Daniel is busy with work and with university studies in Wollongong. Marie spoke last Saturday at a Ladies meeting hosted by Crossroads Baptist Church in Sydney. Many ladies were blessed and several unsaved heard the Gospel.

May the Lord bless as you follow and serve Him!

Thank you for your prayers and financial support received in March & April!
