HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Thanksgiving is a wonderful holiday! It's also an interesting word. It generally conveys the giving of thanks, but it can also mean the giving of self or other things gratefully. Gratitude and giving are what it's all about. Americans do have much to be thankful for, as do Aussies and other nationalities. How much more do we believers have to be thankful for whose eternal citizenship is in Heaven! ^{*1}

Peter & Bella (who have three-year-old triplets!) and Karen are growing more faithful. Jackie and Pamela have started attending more recently.

In our last report, I shared that Mitch and Breanna trusted in Christ and were growing spiritually. They continue to do so, and were even married a few weeks ago in obedience to the Lord's leading to end their sinful de facto relationship.

In October, Mitch's mother, Kylie, called on the Lord to save her after a lunch in our home. She has enjoyed attending church services and learning about her Lord and His Word and will, and she plans to begin discipleship next week.

Earlier this week, Feb graduated from Bible college in Sydney and plans to be interned in his home church. He was the only graduate from our college this year, and I am aware of only one other recent graduate anywhere in this wide sunburnt country of 27 million. ^{*2} Please pray for the Lord to send more labourers into His harvest.

We were delighted and honored to host Pastor and Mrs. Cutshaw for several days in October. They are from East Side Baptist Church in Memphis, TN, the home of our mission board, FBWWM. I was edified to get to know Pastor Cutshaw better, and my wife feels the same way about Mrs. Cutshaw. Their ministry among us was edifying to the saints in both our churches and I was so blessed to knock on doors and hand out tracts with Pastor Cutshaw. We received an all-too-familiar apathetic response, but seeds were planted.

Pastor Reeve was in an accident three weeks ago. He was hit from behind, apparently by a medically-impaired driver. The Reeve car was written off; but thankfully, no one was seriously injured in the accident. Pastor Reeve, however, is still suffering from whiplash and soft-tissue damages. Please pray for his recovery and for him to relocate his work and home closer to the church.

Please pray for Layla to begin attending church services and grow in the knowledge of our Lord and His Word. Pray for visitors Todd, Indie, and others from recent weeks to keep coming.

Thank you for your prayers and financial support received in October & November!

^{*1} Being American and saved gives one a double obligation for thankfulness; so, being a saved American serving the Lord in Australia brings a triple obligation for thankfulness! ^{*2} That makes Feb literally a one-in-ten-million kind of person!
