Dear Pastor and Church,

A Blessed Month

On June 8, we had a combined service with our sending church, Albemarle Baptist in Charlottesville, VA, so that we could have a baptism. What a blessing to see Matt baptized!

Please pray for his discipleship in the coming months, that Satan would not hinder those meetings and that there would be growth.

We also had two separate families visit for several services during June. Since January, we have visited every house in a six-mile radius around the church. Many of these houses received John and Romans from us last year, but we are endeavoring to go back and have more profitable visits.

When we looked into doing Facebook live for our services last month, we discovered that we needed more followers in order to do that. Thanks to everyone who helped to get us over the 100 mark! This last Sunday we were able to post our Sunday night service.

During our trip to see Scot's family in Oklahoma in June, the MacAvoy's filled in for us for several services. What a blessing they were to us and to FBBC!

Our Trip

Our trip to Oklahoma to visit Scot's family was filled with good times and also some unexpected events, such as our car being broken into. Thankfully, not much of value was in it; jumper cables and umbrellas can be easily replaced. We were grateful that no real damage occurred. Last month we asked prayer for the salvation of Scot's grandmother (Nonnie). Although we prayed for a clear opportunity to witness to her during our visit, she was very quick to shut down any mention of salvation. We do know that all three of her sons have witnessed to her, and we are praying that her eyes would be opened and her heart softened before it is eternally too late. Overall, we enjoyed our trip but are delighted to be back home!

Upcoming Events

This coming Sunday, July 13, is our annual Love Your Neighbor Sunday. The people are helping with a lunch following the service, and we have set a goal to exceed our highest attendance yet. Many invites have gone out, and many more will go out this week as we follow up with prospects, mail invitations, and continue to door-knock. Please pray for our preparation, for the hearts of those who receive the invites, and for the gospel to be clearly proclaimed and heard on this special day.

Other upcoming evangelistic outreaches include the county fair on August 14-16, as well as Fork Union Day on September 19. Please pray that we will have wisdom as we prepare for these events in knowing how best to give out the gospel to the community.

We so need and appreciate your prayers for our family and for Foundations Bible Baptist Church.

In His service,

Scot and Julie Jobe
